- 1. Introduction to BBSI. Your Worksite Employer is the company or organization where you report to work and/or that supervises you. Your Worksite Employer has entered into a contract with Barrett Business Services, Inc. ("BBSI") to assist with human resources related matters, such as payroll and workers' compensation insurance. The term "Worksite Employee" refers to you.
- 2. Your Worksite Employer. You acknowledge that your Worksite Employer, and not BBSI, is the Primary Employer for purposes of the services or work you perform and safety in the workplace. Your Worksite Employer retains control of the worksite, supervises and directs your day-to-day work activities, provides the facilities and furnishes the equipment and supplies for your work (including personal protective equipment, if any is required to perform your job duties), determines your work schedule, monitors your workload and productivity, ensures that you are properly trained to perform your job safely, ensures that you are covered by an effective Injury and Illness Prevention Program, and determines your rate of pay and job classification. You acknowledge that Worksite Employer, and not BBSI, receives the economic benefit of the services or work you perform. BBSI will take responsibility for certain administrative functions, as agreed upon between BBSI and your Worksite Employer.
- 3. At-Will Status. Your employment relationship with Worksite Employer remains at-will, which means it can be terminated by you or Worksite Employer with or without cause and with or without advance notice, unless you have a written employment contract with Worksite Employer providing you with something other than at-will employment with Worksite Employer. Regardless of the nature of your employment relationship with Worksite Employer, your status with BBSI can be terminated with or without cause and with or without advance notice. If your employment relationship with Worksite Employer ends, your status with BBSI will also end at that time. However, if your Worksite Employer and BBSI end their contract with one another, thereby terminating your status with BBSI, that event alone would not result in the termination of your employment relationship with Worksite Employer.
- Worksite Employer Paid Time Off and Other Benefits. In the event that Worksite Employer maintains policies providing paid time off from work, such as vacation, sick leave, PTO, or paid leave for specific reasons such as pregnancy, Worksite Employer is solely responsible for funding or determining eligibility for benefits under such policies. BBSI does not provide, and has no policy providing, vacation or other paid time off benefits, except to the extent required by law. To the extent paid time off benefits are paid through BBSI's payroll, it is solely as an administrative service on behalf of Worksite Employer. Similarly, to the extent Worksite Employer provides other benefits pursuant to policies to which BBSI is not a party, such as severance pay, stock options, bonuses, profit sharing, retirement benefits, disability insurance, and so forth, Worksite Employer is solely responsible for providing such benefits (or procuring the benefits from third parties). To the extent state or local paid sick leave laws apply to you, Worksite Employer is responsible for providing such benefits both on behalf of Worksite Employer and on behalf of BBSI (to the extent BBSI has any obligations under such laws). By providing examples of potential Worksite Employer benefits, this Acknowledgment does not create any right to such benefits or imply that any such benefits exist.

- 5. Wage and Hour Compliance. Although BBSI processes the payroll for your compensation and may assist Worksite Employer with other administrative matters involving your compensation, only your Worksite Employer is able to ensure that: your hours of work are all captured and reported correctly for payment; you are classified correctly as exempt or non-exempt; you are paid overtime is applicable to you; you are reimbursed for reasonable work-related expenses; and you receive the breaks to which you may be entitled. You agree that Worksite Employer has sole control of these topics, and that therefore Worksite Employer is solely responsible for any claims you may have related to these topics.
- Accidents and Injuries. Immediately report work related injuries or accidents, or unsafe working conditions to your supervisor, and contact BBSI if the situation is not timely addressed by your supervisor. You should immediately stop working if you feel your work area is unsafe. Additionally, if you are assigned work that you reasonably believe to be dangerous, you may refuse to do that work, and you should contact your supervisor or BBSI.
- 7. Employee Expense Reimbursements. Although BBSI may disperse expense reimbursements related to your work for your Worksite Employer, your Worksite Employer is solely responsible for determining the amount of reimbursement owed and administering all expense reimbursement programs and policies. BBSI's only role with respect to expense reimbursement is disbursement of the funds provided by Worksite Employer in amounts determined by Worksite Employer.
- 8. Other Worksite Employer Policies. Your Worksite Employer will have other rules, policies and procedures you must follow. If you have any questions about those items, please consult your supervisor or another member of management at your Worksite Employer. It is your responsibility to remain informed regarding changes or updates in rules, policies, and procedures.
- 9. Agreement. Your signature below confirms that you understand, acknowledge, and agree to the terms, conditions, facts, and policies set forth in this document. This document is not a contract for continued employment nor does it guarantee the provision of any set benefit or wage. This Acknowledgment supersedes any prior verbal or written promises or discussions regarding the subjects set forth herein. Should any term or provision of this Acknowledgment, or portion thereof, be declared void or unenforceable it shall be severed and the remainder of this Acknowledgment shall be enforceable. The terms of this Acknowledgment may only be changed in writing, by an authorized representative of BBSI.

Employee Acknowledgement of the Medical Provider Network

In order to provide the most timely and suitable quality medical care in the event of an injury on the job, we have instituted a Medical Provider Network for Workers' Compensation purposes.

The following procedures must be followed for all work related injuries and illnesses.

- Report promptly any work related injury to the supervisor.
- For a referral to a medical provider specialist, contact your employer or claims adjuster.
- Ensure all medical treatment is handled only through the MPN (Medical Provider Network) unless otherwise authorized.
- Direct all questions about the level of care to the PCP (Primary Care Physician), who is the focal point for all medical treatment.
- A directory of medical care providers is available at my request through my employer.

Please sign below to indicate that you have read and understand the procedures to follow in the event of an injury and your duties under our Medical Provider Network.

Workers' Compensation Fraud Notice

Workers' Compensation fraud will not be tolerated by Barrett Business Services, Inc. ("BBSI"), and will be pursued to the fullest extent. A person commits workers' compensation fraud when, in the course of reporting a claim to obtain benefits, he or she intentionally misrepresents a material fact to obtain a benefit to which a claimant is not otherwise entitled. A misrepresentation is material when it is relevant to whether benefits will be paid or the amount of the benefits to be paid.

Some Examples of Workers' Compensation Fraud:

- Filing a workers' compensation claim for an injury that is known with certainty to be completely unrelated to employment.
- Lying about earnings received from employment other than the employment in which you were injured.
- Purposely misleading or exaggerating one's current medical condition to receive workers' compensation benefits.

Making false or misleading statements to obtain workers' compensation benefits may result in civil and criminal penalties for the individuals that make such statements. BBSI will notify the workers' compensation insurance organization if we have reason to believe an employee has supplied false or misleading information in connection with a claim. Workers' compensation fraud may be grounds for disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment. BBSI supports activities to detect and combat workers' compensation fraud.

This letter is not intended to discourage the legitimate use of the workers' compensation system. You should immediately report any injury that you believe is work related to your supervisor and BBSI.

Please sign and return this to your BBSI representative during orientation. Please let us know if you have any questions.

I acknowledge receiving this information and understand the content in this memo.

Form W-4 (2023)

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code.

Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose of Form

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. If too little is withheld, you will generally owe tax when you file your tax return and may owe a penalty. If too much is withheld, you will generally be due a refund. Complete a new Form W-4 when changes to your personal or financial situation would change the entries on the form. For more information on withholding and when you must furnish a new Form W-4, see Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2023 if you meet both of the following conditions: you had no federal income tax liability in 2022 and you expect to have no federal income tax liability in 2023. You had no federal income tax liability in 2022 if (1) your total tax on line 24 on your 2022 Form 1040 or 1040-SR is zero (or less than the sum of lines 27, 28, and 29), or (2) you were not required to file a return because your income was below the filing threshold for your correct filing status. If you claim exemption, you will have no income tax withheld from your paycheck and may owe taxes and penalties when you file your 2023 tax return. To claim exemption from withholding, certify that you meet both of the conditions above by writing "Exempt" on Form W-4 in the space below Step 4(c). Then, complete Steps 1(a), 1(b), and 5. Do not complete any other steps. You will need to submit a new Form W-4 by February 15, 2024.

Your privacy. If you have concerns with Step 2(c), you may choose Step 2(b); if you have concerns with Step 4(a), you may enter an additional amount you want withheld per pay period in Step 4(c).

Self-employment. Generally, you will owe both income and self-employment taxes on any self-employment income you receive separate from the wages you receive as an employee. If you want to pay income and self-employment taxes through withholding from your wages, you should enter the self-employment income on Step 4(a). Then compute your self-employment tax, divide that tax by the number of pay periods remaining in the year, and include that resulting amount per pay period on Step 4(c). You can also add half of the annual amount of self-employment tax to Step 4(b) as a deduction. To calculate self-employment tax, you generally multiply the self-employment income by 14.13% (this rate is a quick way to figure your selfemployment tax and equals the sum of the 12.4% social security tax and the 2.9% Medicare tax multiplied by 0.9235). See Pub. 505 for more information, especially if the sum of self-employment income multiplied by 0.9235 and wages exceeds $160,200 for a given individual.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Step 1(c). Check your anticipated filing status. This will determine the standard deduction and tax rates used to compute your withholding.

Step 2. Use this step if you (1) have more than one job at the same time, or (2) are married filing jointly and you and your spouse both work.

If you (and your spouse) have a total of only two jobs, you may check the box in option (c). The box must also be checked on the Form W-4 for the other job. If the box is checked, the standard deduction and tax brackets will be cut in half for each job to calculate withholding. This option is roughly accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld, and this extra amount will be larger the greater the difference in pay is between the two jobs.

Multiple jobs. Complete Steps 3 through 4(b) on only one Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you do this on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Step 3. This step provides instructions for determining the amount of the child tax credit and the credit for other dependents that you may be able to claim when you file your tax return. To qualify for the child tax credit, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31, must be your dependent who generally lives with you for more than half the year, and must have the required social security number. You may be able to claim a credit for other dependents for whom a child tax credit can't be claimed, such as an older child or a qualifying relative. For additional eligibility requirements for these credits, see Pub. 501, Dependents, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information. You can also include other tax credits for which you are eligible in this step, such as the foreign tax credit and the education tax credits. To do so, add an estimate of the amount for the year to your credits for dependents and enter the total amount in Step 3. Including these credits will increase your paycheck and reduce the amount of any refund you may receive when you file your tax return.

Step 4 (optional).

Step 4(a). Enter in this step the total of your other estimated income for the year, if any. You shouldn't include income from any jobs or self-employment. If you complete Step 4(a), you likely won't have to make estimated tax payments for that income. If you prefer to pay estimated tax rather than having tax on other income withheld from your paycheck, see Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals.

Step 4(b). Enter in this step the amount from the Deductions Worksheet, line 5, if you expect to claim deductions other than the basic standard deduction on your 2023 tax return and want to reduce your withholding to account for these deductions. This includes both itemized deductions and other deductions such as for student loan interest and IRAs.

Step 4(c). Enter in this step any additional tax you want withheld from your pay each pay period, including any amounts from the Multiple Jobs Worksheet, line 4. Entering an amount here will reduce your paycheck and will either increase your refund or reduce any amount of tax that you owe.

Form W-4 (2023)

Step 2(b) - Multiple Jobs Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

If you choose the option in Step 2(b) on Form W-4, complete this worksheet (which calculates the total extra tax for all jobs) on only ONE Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you complete the worksheet and enter the result on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job. To be accurate, submit a new Form W-4 for all other jobs if you have not updated your withholding since 2019.

Note: If more than one job has annual wages of more than $120,000 or there are more than three jobs, see Pub. 505 for additional tables.

1	Two jobs. If you have two jobs or you're married filing jointly and you and your spouse each have one job, find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4. Using the "Higher Paying Job" row and the "Lower Paying Job" column, find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 1. Then, skip to line 3	1	$
2	Three jobs. If you and/or your spouse have three jobs at the same time, complete lines 2a, 2b, and 2c below. Otherwise, skip to line 3.
	a Find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 using the annual wages from the highest paying job in the "Higher Paying Job" row and the annual wages for your next highest paying job in the "Lower Paying Job" column. Find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 2a	2a	$
	b Add the annual wages of the two highest paying jobs from line 2a together and use the total as the wages in the "Higher Paying Job" row and use the annual wages for your third job in the "Lower Paying Job" column to find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 and enter this amount on line 2b	2b	$
	c Add the amounts from lines 2a and 2b and enter the result on line 2c	2c	$
3	Enter the number of pay periods per year for the highest paying job. For example, if that job pays weekly, enter 52; if it pays every other week, enter 26; if it pays monthly, enter 12, etc	3
4	Divide the annual amount on line 1 or line 2c by the number of pay periods on line 3. Enter this amount here and in Step 4(c) of Form W-4 for the highest paying job (along with any other additional amount you want withheld)	4	$
	Step 4(b) – Deductions Worksheet (Keep for your records.)
1	Enter an estimate of your 2023 itemized deductions (from Schedule A (Form 1040)). Such deductions may include qualifying home mortgage interest, charitable contributions, state and local taxes (up to $10,000), and medical expenses in excess of 7.5% of your income	1	$
2	Enter: • $27,700 if you're married filing jointly or a qualifying surviving spouse • $20,800 if you're head of household • $13,850 if you're single or married filing separately	2	$
3	If line 1 is greater than line 2, subtract line 2 from line 1 and enter the result here. If line 2 is greater than line 1, enter "-0-"	3	$
4	Enter an estimate of your student loan interest, deductible IRA contributions, and certain other adjustments (from Part II of Schedule 1 (Form 1040)). See Pub. 505 for more information	4	$
5	Add lines 3 and 4. Enter the result here and in Step 4(b) of Form W-4	5	$

Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. Internal Revenue Code sections 3402(f)(2) and 6109 and their regulations require you to provide this information; your employer uses it to determine your federal income tax withholding. Failure to provide a properly completed form will result in your being treated as a single person with no other entries on the form; providing fraudulent information may subject you to penalties. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation; to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and territories for use in administering their tax laws; and to the Department of Health and Human Services for use in the National Directory of New Hires. We may also disclose this information to other countries under a tax treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce federal nontax criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism.

You are not required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by Code section 6103.

The average time and expenses required to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. For estimated averages, see the instructions for your income tax return.

If you have suggestions for making this form simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. See the instructions for your income tax return.

- 2. Additional amount, if any, you want withheld each pay period (if employer agrees), (Worksheet B and C)OR

Exemption from Withholding

I claim exemption from withholding for 2020, and I certify I meet both of the conditions for exemption.
 OR

Write "Exempt" here

4. I certify under penalty of perjury that I am not subject to California withholding. I meet the conditions set forth under the Service Member Civil Relief Act, as amended by the Military Spouses Residency Relief Act and the Veterans Benefits and Transition Act of 2018.

(Check box here)

Under the penalties of perjury, I certify that the number of withholding allowances claimed on this certificate does not exceed the number to which I am entitled or, if claiming exemption from withholding, that I am entitled to claim the exempt status.

Employee's Signature ______ Date

Employer's Section: Employer's Name and Address	California Employer Payroll Tax Account Number

PURPOSE: This certificate, DE 4, is for California Personal Income Tax (PIT) withholding purposes only. The DE 4 is used to compute the amount of taxes to be withheld from your wages, by your employer, to accurately reflect your state tax withholding obligation.

Beginning January 1, 2020, Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate (Form W-4) from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) will be used for federal income tax withholding only. You must file the state form Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate (DE 4) to determine the appropriate California Personal Income Tax (PIT) withholding.

If you do not provide your employer with a withholding certificate, the employer must use Single with Zero withholding allowance.

CHECK YOUR WITHHOLDING: After your DE 4 takes effect, compare the state income tax withheld with your estimated total annual tax. For state withholding, use the worksheets on this form.

EXEMPTION FROM WITHHOLDING: If you wish to claim exempt, complete the federal Form W-4 and the state DE 4. You may claim exempt from withholding California income tax if you meet both of the following conditions for exemption:

- 1. You did not owe any federal/state income tax last year, and
- You do not expect to owe any federal/state income tax this year. The exemption is good for one year.

If you continue to qualify for the exempt filing status, a new DE 4 designating EXEMPT must be submitted by February 15 each year to continue your exemption. If you are not having federal/state income tax withheld this year but expect to have a tax liability next year, you are required to give your employer a new DE 4 by December 1.

Member Service Civil Relief Act: Under this act, as provided by the Military Spouses Residency Relief Act and the Veterans Benefits and Transition Act of 2018, you may be exempt from California income tax on your wages if

- your spouse is a member of the armed forces present in California in compliance with military orders;
- (ii) you are present in California solely to be with your spouse; and
- (iii) you maintain your domicile in another state.

If you claim exemption under this act, check the box on Line 4. You may be required to provide proof of exemption upon request.

The California Employer's Guide (DE 44) (PDF, 2.4 MB) (edd.ca.gov/pdf_pub_ctr/de44.pdf) provides the income tax withholding tables. This publication may be found by visiting Forms and Publications (edd.ca.gov/Payroll_Taxes/Forms_and_Publications.htm). To assist you in calculating your tax liability, please visit the Franchise Tax Board (FTB) (ftb.ca.gov).

If you need information on your last California Resident Income Tax Return (FTB Form 540), visit the Franchise Tax Board (FTB) (ftb.ca.gov).

NOTIFICATION: The burden of proof rests with the employee to show the correct California income tax withholding. Pursuant to section 4340-1(e) of Title 22, California Code of Regulations (CCR), the FTB or the EDD may, by special direction in writing, require an employer to submit a Form W-4 or DE 4 when such forms are necessary for the administration of the withholding tax programs.

PENALTY: You may be fined $500 if you file, with no reasonable basis, a DE 4 that results in less tax being withheld than is properly allowable. In addition, criminal penalties apply for willfully supplying false or fraudulent information or failing to supply information requiring an increase in withholding. This is provided by section 13101 of the California Unemployment Insurance Code and section 19176 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

WORKSHEETS

INSTRUCTIONS — 1 — ALLOWANCES*

When determining your withholding allowances, you must consider your personal situation:

- Do you claim allowances for dependents or blindness?
- Will you itemize your deductions?
- Do you have more than one income coming into the household?

TWO-EARNERS/MULTIPLE INCOMES: When earnings are derived from more than one source, under-withholding may occur. If you have a working spouse or more than one job, it is best to check the box "SINGLE or MARRIED (with two or more incomes)." Figure the total number of allowances you are entitled to claim on all jobs using only one DE 4 form. Claim allowances with one employer.

Do not claim the same allowances with more than one employer. Your withholding will usually be most accurate when all allowances are claimed on the DE 4 filed for the highest paying job and zero allowances are claimed for the others.

MARRIED BUT NOT LIVING WITH YOUR SPOUSE: You may check the "Head of Household" marital status box if you meet all of the following tests:

- (1) Your spouse will not live with you at any time during the year;
- (2) You will furnish over half of the cost of maintaining a home for the entire year for yourself and your child or stepchild who qualifies as your dependent; and
- (3) You will file a separate return for the year.

HEAD OF HOUSEHOLD: To qualify, you must be unmarried or legally separated from your spouse and pay more than 50% of the costs of maintaining a home for the entire year for yourself and your dependent(s) or other qualifying individuals. Cost of maintaining the home includes such items as rent, property insurance, property taxes, mortgage interest, repairs, utilities, and cost of food. It does not include the individual's personal expenses or any amount which represents value of services performed by a member of the household of the taxpayer.

INSTRUCTIONS — 2 — (OPTIONAL) ADDITIONAL WITHHOLDING ALLOWANCES

If you expect to itemize deductions on your California income tax return, you can claim additional withholding allowances. Use Worksheet B to determine whether your expected estimated deductions may entitle you to claim one or more additional withholding allowances. Use last year's FTB Form 540 as a model to calculate this year's withholding amounts.

Do not include deferred compensation, qualified pension payments, or flexible benefits, etc., that are deducted from your gross pay but are not taxed on this worksheet.

You may reduce the amount of tax withheld from your wages by claiming one additional withholding allowance for each $1,000, or fraction of $1,000, by which you expect your estimated deductions for the year to exceed your allowable standard deduction.

WORKSHEET B ESTIMATED DEDUCTIONS

Use this worksheet only if you plan to itemize deductions, claim certain adjustments to income, or have a large amount of nonwage income not subject to withholding.

- 1. Enter an estimate of your itemized deductions for California taxes for this tax year as listed in the schedules in the FTB Form 540 1.
- 2. Enter $9,074 if married filing joint with two or more allowances, unmarried head of household, or qualifying widow(er) with dependent(s) or $4,537 if single or married filing separately, dual income married, or married with multiple employers —
- 3. Subtract line 2 from line 1, enter difference
- 4. Enter an estimate of your adjustments to income (alimony payments, IRA deposits) +
- 5. Add line 4 to line 3, enter sum = 5
- 6. Enter an estimate of your nonwage income (dividends, interest income, alimony receipts) 6.
- 7. If line 5 is greater than line 6 (if less, see below [go to line 9]);

 Subtract line 6 from line 5, enter difference = 7.
- 8. Divide the amount on line 7 by $1,000, round any fraction to the nearest whole number

 Add this number to Line F of Worksheet A and enter it on line 1 of the DE 4. Complete Worksheet C, if needed, otherwise stop here.
- 9. If line 6 is greater than line 5;
- 10. Enter amount from line 5 (deductions) 10.
- 11. Subtract line 10 from line 9, enter difference

Complete Worksheet C

Enter amount from line 6 (nonwage income)

*Wages paid to registered domestic partners will be treated the same for state income tax purposes as wages paid to spouses for California PIT withholding and PIT wages. This law does not impact federal income tax law. A registered domestic partner means an individual partner in a domestic partner relationship within the meaning of section 297 of the Family Code. For more information, please call our Taxpayer Assistance Center at 1-888-745-3886.

1.	Enter estimate of total wages for tax year 2020.	1.
2.	Enter estimate of nonwage income (line 6 of Worksheet B).	2.
3.	Add line 1 and line 2. Enter sum.	3.
4.	Enter itemized deductions or standard deduction (line 1 or 2 of Worksheet B, whichever is largest).	4.
5.	Enter adjustments to income (line 4 of Worksheet B).	5.
6.	Add line 4 and line 5. Enter sum.	6.
7.	Subtract line 6 from line 3. Enter difference.	7.
8.	Figure your tax liability for the amount on line 7 by using the 2020 tax rate schedules below.	8.
9.	Enter personal exemptions (line F of Worksheet A x $134.20).	9.
10.	Subtract line 9 from line 8. Enter difference.	10.
11.	Enter any tax credits. (See FTB Form 540).	11.
12.	Subtract line 11 from line 10. Enter difference. This is your total tax liability.	12.
13.	Calculate the tax withheld and estimated to be withheld during 2020. Contact your employer to request the amount that will be withheld on your wages based on the marital status and number of withholding allowances you will claim for 2020. Multiply the estimated amount to be withheld by the number of pay periods left in the year. Add the total to the amount already withheld for 2020.	13.
14.	Subtract line 13 from line 12. Enter difference. If this is less than zero, you do not need to have additional taxes withheld.	14.
15.	Divide line 14 by the number of pay periods remaining in the year. Enter this figure on line 2 of the DE 4.	15.

NOTE: Your employer is not required to withhold the additional amount requested on line 2 of your DE 4. If your employer does not agree to withhold the additional amount, you may increase your withholdings as much as possible by using the "single" status with "zero" allowances. If the amount withheld still results in an underpayment of state income taxes, you may need to file quarterly estimates on Form 540-ES with the FTB to avoid a penalty.

Please do the following:

- 1. If you elect to deposit wages to your own bank account and not receive a pay card, please go to the last page of this packet and fill out the appropriate information.
- 2. If you elect to receive a pay card to deposit your wages, or would like a pay card as a secondary deposit, please read the following pages carefully and understand the fees associated with a pay card. You may then go to the last page complete the Payroll Election form.
- 3. If you choose to receive live checks for payment of wages, you do not need to review this packet or complete the Payroll Election Form. However, we strongly recommend direct deposit so you can avoid losing the check, reduce waste, and save time having to go to the bank. Please notify your hiring manager if you prefer a live check.

PRE-ENROLLMENT DISCLOSURE

Please review the following important information about the payroll card offered by your employer to you. You should also review the full list of the fees ("Long Form") and Cardholder Agreement, both of which are provided to you with this disclosure and include additional information about the terms and fees as well as your rights and responsibilities associated with the card.

Payroll Options. Your employer offers several options for receiving your pay, including direct deposit to the account of your choice, paper check, and a payroll card ("Card"). Use of a payroll card is voluntary; you are not required to accept your wages on a Card. Your employer must provide you with details on your other pay options. You may change the method by which you receive your pay at any time. Please ask your employer about how to change your pay method.

Access to Your Wages at No Charge. There are several ways to access your pay from your Card without incurring fees, including withdrawals at In-Network ATMs, Teller Assisted Cash Withdrawals at member banks, and U.S. Postal Service money order purchases. While your Card offers many services at no cost, some transactions or services may have fees. The brochure included with your Card provides examples of how to maximize these no cost transactions. Withdrawal limits are in place to protect you from potential fraud. In the event your balance exceeds the daily withdrawal limits and you would like to withdraw all your funds, please contact us by calling Cardholder Services at the number on the back of your Card.

Payroll Card Fees. There are no fees for enrolling and participating in the program, receiving and activating your first Card or accessing your pay in the manner described above. There are also no overdraft fees associated with your Card. You may not be charged any fees by the issuer of the Card or your employer other than those listed on the Long Form. Third parties, like ATM operators and mobile carriers, may charge you additional fees when you use their services. Foreign transactions may carry fees.

How to Access Your Account Balance. You can obtain balance and transaction information about your Card by calling Cardholder Services at the number on the back of your Card, or by visiting the website listed on the back of your Card. You can use these services 24 hours a day, 7 days a week without cost. You also can sign up to receive email or text alerts with information about your account balance at the website listed on the back of your Card or via the Prepaid CardConnect Mobile App.

How to Access Transaction Histories. You may view a 12-month history of your Card transactions electronically by visiting the website listed on the back of your Card. You may request a written 24-month history or monthly statements by calling Cardholder Services at the phone number listed on the back of your Card.

Closing Your Payroll Card Account. You may close your Card at any time by contacting Cardholder Services. Your request for Card closure will not affect any of our rights or your obligations arising under this Agreement prior to the request. Should your Card account be closed, we will issue you a credit for any unpaid balances, subject to fees as disclosed in the Long Form. We reserve the right to close your Card account should you complete or attempt to complete any of the prohibited actions in this Agreement.

Replacement Card. You will also be sent a replacement card before the expiration date listed on your Card. Standard fee card replacements are provided at no cost to you. Fees may apply for expedited delivery of a replacement.

No Credit. Your Card does not offer access to any form of credit.

Additional Disclosures for Minnesota Workers: You should receive a copy of the signed written consent from your employer, and the consent must include the terms and conditions of the payroll card account option. If your employer offers a payroll card to you using materials in a language other than English, all disclosures, written consent, and payroll card account agreements must be in that other language. You may request to be paid in another way, using a form your employer must provide you. Your employer must begin payment using the new method within 14 days of receiving your request. Unless you consent in writing, information generated by your possession or use of the Card may only be used to process transactions and administer the Card.

Additional Disclosures for New Hampshire Workers: The written consent must include the terms and conditions of the payroll card account option. Your employer must provide written notice of any changes to the terms and conditions of the payroll card, including the itemized list of fees, and obtain your consent to continue paying your wages to Card after the change. Your employer is responsible for any increase in fees charged before written notice of the change is provided to you.

STATE OF CALIFORNIA - DEPARTMENT OF INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS Division of Workers' Compensation

Notice to Employees--Injuries Caused By Work

You may be entitled to workers' compensation benefits if you are injured or become ill because of your job. Workers' compensation covers most work-related physical or mental injuries and illnesses. An injury or illness can be caused by one event (such as hurting your back in a fall) or by repeated exposures (such as hurting your wrist from doing the same motion over and over).

Benefits. Workers' compensation benefits include:

- Medical Care: Doctor visits, hospital services, physical therapy, lab tests, x-rays, medicines, medical equipment and travel costs that are reasonably necessary to treat your injury. You should never see a bill. There are limits on chiropractic, physical therapy and occupational therapy visits.
- Temporary Disability (TD) Benefits: Payments if you lose wages while recovering. For most injuries, TD benefits may not be paid for more than 104 weeks within five years from the date of injury.
- Permanent Disability (PD) Benefits: Payments if you do not recover completely and your injury causes a permanent loss of physical or mental function that a doctor can measure.
- Supplemental Job Displacement Benefit: A nontransferable voucher, if you are injured on or after 1/1/2004, your injury causes permanent disability, and your employer does not offer you regular, modified, or alternative work.
- Death Benefits: Paid to your dependents if you die from a work-related injury or illness.

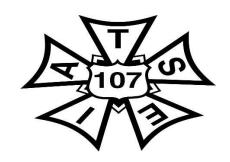

Naming Your Own Physician Before Injury or Illness (Predesignation). You may be able to choose the doctor who will treat you for a job injury or illness. If eligible, you must tell your employer, in writing, the name and address of your personal physician or medical group before you are injured. You must obtain their agreement to treat you for your work injury. For instructions, see the written information about workers' compensation that your employer is required to give to new employees.

If You Get Hurt:

- 1. Get Medical Care. If you need emergency care, call 911 for help immediately from the hospital, ambulance, fire department or police department. If you need first aid, contact your employer.
- 2. Report Your Injury. Report the injury immediately to your supervisor or to an employer representative. Don't delay. There are time limits. If you wait too long, you may lose your right to benefits. Your employer is required to provide you with a claim form within one working day after learning about your injury. Within one working day after you file a claim form, your employer or claims administrator must authorize the provision of all treatment, up to ten thousand dollars, consistent with the applicable treatment guidelines, for your alleged injury until the claim is accepted or rejected.
- 3. See Your Primary Treating Physician (PTP). This is the doctor with overall responsibility for treating your injury or illness.
 - If you predesignated your personal physician or a medical group, you may see your personal physician or the medical group after you are injured.
 - If your employer is using a medical provider network (MPN) or a health care organization (HCO), in most cases you will be treated within the MPN or HCO unless you predesignated a personal physician or medical group. An MPN is a group of physicians and health care providers who provide treatment to workers injured on the job. You should receive information from your employer if you are covered by an HCO or a MPN. Contact your employer for more information.
 - If your employer is not using an MPN or HCO, in most cases the claims administrator can choose the doctor who first treats you when you are injured, unless you predesignated a personal physician or medical group.
- 4. Medical Provider Networks. Your employer may be using an MPN, which is a group of health care providers designated to provide treatment to workers injured on the job. If you have predesignated a personal physician or medical group prior to your work injury, then you may go there to receive treatment from your predesignated doctor. If you are treating with a non-MPN doctor for an existing injury, you may be required to change to a doctor within the MPN. For more information, see the MPN contact information below:

I.A.T.S.E LOCAL 107 CHECK OFF AUTHORIZATION

Employer: Concept Services Inc.

Effective immediately, the undersigned voluntarily assigns to the International Alliance of Theatrical State Employees Union("I.A.T.S.E."), Local 107, four and one-quarter percent (4.25%), or any other percentage as determined by the membership of I.A.T.S.E. Local 107 in the future, of all wages earned and to be earned by the undersigned as an employee.

The undersigned voluntarily authorizes and directs my employer to deduct four and one-quarter percent (4.25%), or any other percentage as determined by the membership of I.A.T.S.E. Local 107 in the future, from the undersigned's wages and to remit the same to I.A.T.S.E. Local 107.

This assignment and authorization shall remain in effect and shall be irrevocable unless I revoke it by sending written notice via U.S. mail to both the employer and I.A.T.S.E. Local 107 during a window period not less than ten (10) days and not more than twenty (20) days before the annual anniversary date of this agreement or the date of the termination of the applicable collective bargaining agreement, whichever occurs sooner. This assignment and authorization shall automatically renewed as an irrevocable check-off from year to year unless I revoke it in writing during the window period, even if I have resigned my membership in I.A.T.S.E. Local 107.

In signing this check-off authorization, I do so voluntarily intending that the amounts deducted and remitted to I.A.T.S.E. Local 107, in payment of the same percentage of earnings as members of said Local pay to help defray the cost of operating I.A.T.S.E. Local 107.
